

A subordinating conjunction joins a dependent clause to an independent clause.
It establishes relationship between two ideas.

Circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence.

1. He cleared the snow from the driveway so we could drive out.

2. Make your bed while I will make breakfast.

3. It is so hot that I am sweating!

4. I don't want milk although I will have some water.

5. I need to let the dog out before I leave for school.

6. We left a large tip because the service was so great.

7. Mary asked questions so that she could understand.

8. Sandy will return next week unless her flight gets changed.

9. Trouble follows her wherever she goes.

10. That is easier said than done.

11. She went swimming even though the water was freezing cold.

12. Chris watched television while Kerry did the dishes.

13. I can make that recipe if I have all of the ingredients.

14. Adam will do the job now that he got a raise.

15. The tree fell when lightning struck it.