

Completing a Sentence with the Correct Relative Adverb

Choose the correct relative adverb to complete the following sentence.

1. Who knows _____ Fred loves to eat pickle and bologna sandwiches.

- what
- whatever
- why

2. Caleb always laughs _____ his big brother tells a joke.

- whenever
- why
- where

3. Just put your bag _____ you can find room.

- why
- wherever
- how

4. It was so frustrating _____ I forgot my bookbag.

- when
- why
- where

5. That's the park _____ I like to play basketball.

- however
- where
- wherever

6. That is _____ I am afraid of snakes.

- when
- why
- how

7. Bob is ready to eat _____ there is food.

- why
- whenever
- however

8. My dog follows me _____ I go.

- how
- why
- wherever

9. Emily makes new friends _____ she goes.

- however
- why
- wherever

10. I like the part of the movie _____ the dragon chases the knights.

- how
- when
- why

11. We don't know _____ my dog hates birds.

- when
- why
- wherever

12. We will all come to the birthday party, _____ you have it.

- how
- wherever
- why

13. My baby brother cries _____ he is hungry.

- however
- where
- whenever

14. My love for reading is _____ I want to be an author when I grow up.

- when
- why
- how

15. My teacher laughed _____ I told her a joke.

- when
- how
- however