

Identifying the Conjunction as Coordinating or Subordinating Part 2

---

Identify the type of the underlined conjunction.

1. Before he was a famous actor, John was a waiter in a restaurant.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

2. Since Kyla's recital is on Saturday night, she needs to practice her dance routine.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

3. Joshua likes chocolate ice cream, but his brother, Jimmy hates it.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

4. Trina slept late, yet she made it to school on time.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

5. Once she receives the plants she ordered, Emma will plant the flowers.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

6. Even though the water was deep and murky, the swimmers dove in.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

7. Although they were friends, Jordan refused to say hello to Brandon at school.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

8. The pizza was hot, so we waited to start eating.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

9. Jose barely talked because he was very shy.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

10. We went for a walk even though it was raining.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

11. My pen ran out, and I have to finish the test!

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

12. Tina wants to do well on the test, so she will need to study.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

13. Even though the house did not sell, they are moving anyway.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

14. I am bringing juice to the party, and Lilly is bringing cupcakes.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction

15. The children leapt from their seats when the bell rang.

- Coordinating Conjunction
- Subordinating Conjunction