

Identifying Subject of the Reflexive Pronoun

---

Circle the complete subject which the reflexive pronoun is referring to.

1. The little boy made himself a peanut butter sandwich for lunch.
2. Worried that we would forget something for our trip, we left ourselves notes all around the house.
3. If no one will help me, I will have to do this myself.
4. Mother brought in all the packages herself; she was tired of waiting for us.
5. Melissa and Joan taught themselves to strum the guitar.
6. The dog tired itself out chasing falling leaves in the backyard.
7. The president drove himself to the meeting.
8. Sam didn't study for the test; he has only himself to blame for his grade.
9. The scientists held themselves to high standards, and always double checked their work.
10. "Ladies and gentlemen," said the host, "please give yourselves a round of applause."
"

11. We timed ourselves as we ran the course, hoping to improve our speed.

12. I bought myself a cake and a dozen roses for my birthday.

13. He stopped himself from saying something he might regret later.

14. My sisters painted the room by themselves.

15. The cat groomed itself for an hour before falling asleep.