

Identifying Sentences Needing Question Mark Part 1

Choose the sentence that should use a question mark as the end punctuation.

1. I will be going to New York City next week
 How will you travel to New York City

Choose the sentence that will use a question mark as the end punctuation.

2. Will you attend the dance next Friday
 I can't wait to start school next week
3. I'm looking forward to our vacation, aren't you
 You will be on vacation for a long time

Choose the sentence that should use a question mark as the end punctuation.

4. Their house is the largest on the street
 Their house is large, isn't it
5. I live two blocks away from school
 Do you live on Green St
6. We plan to drive to California next Tues.
 Will you be driving to your grandparents' house next Tues.

7. What do we have for homework tonight
 Our science test was very difficult
8. My favorite ice cream flavor is chocolate
 What are your favorite ice cream flavors
9. Sarah is playing in the game, isn't she
 The opposite team is a tough opponent
10. I would like to travel to Italy
 I love to eat pizza, don't you
11. Our class's musical performance is next Wed.
 Are you going to the park on Fri.
12. Does Heather live on Pinewood Dr.
 I live on a busy street in San Francisco, CA
13. My favorite weekend activity is hiking
 What are you doing this weekend
14. What do you want to cook for dinner
 We need to buy groceries for dinner
15. My friend has a race this weekend
 Rebecca is a gifted runner, isn't she