

Correct form of the Verb

Identify the correct form of the underlined verb: base form, past tense form, past participle, or present participle.

1. Mrs. Wilson planted tulips in the backyard.

- present participle
- base form
- past tense
- past participle

2. I live in Wisconsin.

- present participle
- past tense
- base form
- past participle

3. My family has known him for years.

- past participle
- base form
- past tense
- present participle

4. She is staying in a hotel.

- past participle
- base form
- past tense
- present participle

5. Nancy donated the clothing to a shelter.

- present participle
- past tense
- past participle
- base form

6. I am sitting on the porch.

- present participle
- base form
- past tense
- past participle

7. We buy fresh vegetables from the local market.

- past tense
- past participle
- base form
- present participle

8. We are learning how to swim.

- base form
- past tense
- past participle
- present participle

9. I saw a zebra at the zoo.

- past participle
- past tense
- present participle
- base form

10. Justin has traveled all over the country.

- base form
- past participle
- past tense
- present participle

11. I exercise daily.

- base form
- present participle
- past participle
- past tense

12. She had suspected that something was wrong.

- present participle
- past tense
- past participle
- base form

13. You made the right decision.

- past tense
- past participle
- base form
- present participle

14. Alicia is bringing her dog with her.

- base form
- past tense
- past participle
- present participle

15. I love my family very much.

- past tense
- base form
- past participle
- present participle