

Past Continuous - A Review

True or False?

1. The past continuous tense describes an action going on at some time in the past.

True

False

2. The past continuous tense cannot describe an action that started at a particular time, but did

True

False

3. "Beth was shopping yesterday afternoon at 1 pm." This sentence is in the correct past contin

True

False

4. To form the past continuous, we add "ed" at the end of the main verb.

True

False

5. In the past continuous tense, the conjugated auxiliary verb that goes with “I” is “was.”

- True
- False

6. In the past continuous tense, the conjugated auxiliary verb that goes with “you” and “we” is “v

- True
- False

7. In the past continuous tense, the conjugated auxiliary verb that goes with “he,” “she,” and “it,

- True
- False

8. The equation for forming the past continuous is: subject + auxiliary verb be (was, were) + ma

- True
- False

9. The auxiliary verb “be” is conjugated in the simple past tense.

- True
- False

10. To write a sentence in the past continuous, we add “ing” at the end of the verb.

- True
- False

11. To write a sentence in the simple past tense, we add “ing” at the end of the verb.

- True
- False

12. The sentence “I played the piano” is in simple past tense.

- True
- False

Simple past describes:

13. an action that has already happened at some point in the past an action that happened in the past and is still happening an action that will happen in the future an action that is happening right now

True or False?

14. “Barry was baking the bread.”
This sentence is in the past continuous form.

- True
- False

15. “She is playing cards.”
This sentence is in the past continuous form.

- True
- False